ELATED PROFESSOR SAYS JAPANESE FOOD MERITS INTERNATIONAL RECOGNITION

By Prof. J. A. SARGEANT
in the Asahi Evening News

A number of derogatory remarks have been made from time to time by foreigners on the subject of Japanese food, such as that "it is like a beautiful painting but has no particular flavor or very much nutritive value" and that "the vegetables have no taste."

It is usually China that the man thinks of when the Far East is mentioned with regard to food. One recalls the famous saying, "Happiest is he who has a Japanese wife, lives in a house in Switzerland and eats Chinese food."

Japan is internationally known for a number of arts, but the culinary art is not among them.

Be the reasons what they may, I feel that he or she who has never partaken of Japanese chow has missed a very rich and a most esthetic experience.

Should you doubt my use of the word "esthetic," let me draw your attention to the artistically arranged, multicolored sushi that embellish your dish at the sushi-ya and the manner in which tempura is so delicately laid out before the guest. It seems almost a shame to devour such works of art, into which the craftsman cook has put so much of his skill.

However, "the proof of the pudding is in the eating," so the foreigner, who in all probability balks at tackling his first slice of raw fish—an unheard of thing in Western countries—finally, and with a certain amount of reluctance, downs the morsel, and, if I am not mistaken, pronounces it delicious. "Ah, just like jelly!" and comes back for more.

There are many kinds of sushi. Everyone has his or her own favorite. I go for tuna myself.

You may eat your sushi in either a spacious establishment, if you wish. There are several such in the Ginza area. Myself, I prefer one of the many little holes in the wall where there's "hardly room to swing a cat."

And, of course, for yakitori (bits of chicken liver and other tidbits, interspersed with slices of onion, on a skewer) anything but a foxhole would be entirely out of place.

With yakitori, naturally, goes sake. Hamlet without the Prince could be no more absurd than yakitori without the national drink of Japan—rice in liquid form.

For the true lover of Japanese food, it's sushi in summer and oden in winter, both it goes without saying—washed down with sake. I know of nothing more delightful than to sit, on a cold winter evening, in front of the large metal pot, at an oden-ya, in which various types of vegetables are sizzling in specially prepared hot soup.

What exactly goes into the soup has always been a mystery to me. In Japan you must not ask too many questions about this sort of thing, especially in a yakitori-ya.

Sukiyaki is a firm favorite with many foreigners. It has the advantage of being a kind of sociable dish. Everybody helps everybody else. You can't very well sit in the corner all by yourself and gulp down sukiyaki. The more the merrier.

I suspect, however, that deep down in their hearts, one would find that the charm of sukiyaki for most foreigners lies in its being, to all intents and purposes Western food in an Oriental setting. They feel at home with sukiyaki. They have no fear of anything frightful happening to their tummies.

It is different, of course, with the succulent blow-fish (fugu). You must have seen the bloated creature swinging over the portals of Ginza side-street eating-houses. This fellow requires expert handling, otherwise you may be poisoned. If you can overcome your fears, you'll surely confess fugu is delicious—it literally melts in the mouth.

I have merely scratched the surface of a delightfully fascinating subject. Considerations of space will not permit my doing anything more than mentioning broiled eels (unagi), Japanese noodles (soba) and bean curd (tofu).

Truly there is in Japan an endless variety of food that is not only delightful to look at but good to eat. Japanese cooking merits wider recognition outside the limits of this country.

TORONTO GARDEN CLUB MEMBERS SEEN ON TV

In connection with the Isho exhibit of Japanese costumes currently on view at the Royal Ontario Museum, CBC's Tabloid presented a half-hour program last Tuesday on the special events being held at the museum during the exhibition which runs from Oct. 16-Dec. 16.

A sukiyaki demonstration was given by Gloria Sato, followed by a sword dance by Ryutaro Tsuji, with S. Sato supplying the chants and Toshi Oikawa the narration.

Mrs. K. Irie explained and demonstrated Japanese flower arrangement.

Explanation of the Isho kimono and pattern was given by Mrs. J. Kagetsu, assisted by Mrs. Takahashi and Mrs. F. Hayashi.

Frank Hatashita, with his daughter Patsy, demonstrated the art of judo, illustrating defensive tactics for young girls by being thrown to the floor several times.

Dick MacDougal was also given a chance to throw Frank around.

The production ended with the CBC cast dining on Gloria's delicious sukiyaki. Each of the Tabloid interviewers, MacDougal, Percy Saltzman, Joyce Davidson and Rex Loring were clad in Japanese-style clothing, MacDougal sporting a judo-gi.

In charge of graphics for the program was CBC artist Glen Kono. Japanese kana was used on the screen to spell out "ta-buroi-du."

Special events at the museum will take place for eight consecutive Thursdays as follows: Nov. 1, the cooking of sukiyaki with recipe, 2 p.m.; Nov. 8, Japanese flower arrangement; Nov. 15, demonstration of the Japanese kimono; Nov. 22, tea ceremony; Nov. 29, sukiyaki demonstration; Dec. 6, flower arrangement.

On Tuesday, Dec. 11, an Open Night will be held, featuring a special program of Japanese dancing, judo, music, etc. The museum is regularly open to the public from 2-5 p.m. Sundays, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays except Monday, and is open Friday evenings. Admission is 50 cents during the special exhibition.

CPA Signs First Nisei Stewardesses

Joanne Saimoto and Shirly Shudo, first Nisei stewardesses hired by Canadian Pacific Airlines, are seen examining intercom apparatus on a CPA plane.

Vancouver Girls To Fly Tokyo Route

VANCOUVER (cpa). Canadian Pacific Airlines this week announced the signing of its first Japanese Canadian stewardesses for the Vancouver-Tokyo run.

With increasing passenger traffic to the Orient, CPA has found it convenient to employ girls of Oriental descent and Chinese Canadians have flown the route for a few years.

Twenty-three-year-old Joanne Saimoto is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kunimatsu Saimoto of 1842 West 35th. Shirly Shudo, 21, of 2210 Venables, was born in New Westminster, but her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Shudo, moved back to Japan six years ago.

Shirly will now visit her mother and father in the little town of Sandai, 200 miles north of Tokyo, at least once a month. Joanne caught a first glimpse of her parents' native land last week when she made her first trip as a stewardess for CPA.

Both girls make it quite plain they didn't take up flying to catch a Japanese husband. Said Miss Shudo, who has lived in Japan for five years.

"This job is no matrimonial marathon. The plain truth is we don't think a well placed boy in Japan would go for either of us.

"Marriages in upper class Japanese families," she added, "are still arranged by the parents in most cases and the girls involved very rarely go to work after completing school. Instead, they get married.

"Girls who work for a living, like us," she sighed, "are considered a little bit too independent to make a Japanese bridegroom happy."

Both Shirly and Joanne recently graduated from CPA's Stewardess Training School in Vancouver after completing an intensive five-week course.

Diet Meets Next Month to Ratify Peace Treaty

TOKYO.—A special session of the Diet will meet about Nov. 15 to ratify the declaration ending the 11-year state of war between Japan and the Soviet Union. The agreement was signed Oct. 20 in Moscow.

Treaty Celebration Halts As Two Boats Seized

TOKYO.—A celebration over the newly signed Russo-Japanese peace pact was short-lived in one Japanese fishing village on Northern Hokkaido. Residents of Habomai village, close to Russia-occupied islands, broke out their supplies of sake wine when they heard of the signing. Twenty minutes later, however, the celebration came to a halt when a Russian patrol ship was seen offshore seizing two Japanese fishing boats.

Indians Offended When Classed as Canadians

Indians from the Six Nations confederacy at Brantford sharply criticized Hon. John Pickersgill, immigration minister and secretary of Indian affairs, for what they termed "offensive integration" statements made by him in a speech at the Tabor Hill Iroquois reburial ceremony in Scarboro last Saturday. Chief William Smith protested that it is "offensive to Indians to be classed as Canadians."

Negroes Charge Nisei With Discrimination

SAN JOSE, Calif.—Two Negro families filed suit for $70,000 in damages last week against the Japanese operators of Gilroy Hot Springs Resort, on a charge of racial discrimination. The suit, sponsored by the San Jose unit of NAACP and filed against Henry Kato and H. K. Sakata, operators of the resort, charged that they told the plaintiffs that Negroes were not accepted as guests and asked them to leave as quickly as possible. Kato, when informed of the suit, said, "We don't allow large groups of colored people, except maybe a few. We have a sign up that says we reserve the right to refuse anyone."

Japan Takes Trial Shipment of Canadian Coal

OTTAWA.—Japan, for the first time in five years, has placed an order for a trial shipment of Canadian coal.

The deal was arranged by the Japanese atomic industrial mission now visiting Canada. The coal, from the Crow's Nest area of British Columbia, will go to one of Japan's three big steel mills.

The order was placed by a representative of the mill with Wilbur E. Uren, chairman of the Dominion Coal Board. It is for both steam and coking coal.

The coal board is hoping the trial order will result in a steady and increasing export of coal to Japan. In the past, Japan bought most of its coal from the United States.

Chums On 3-Day Week

VANCOUVER, B.C. chum salmon fishing has been put on a three-day week by fisheries officials in a move to allow escapement of the fish to spawning grounds.

Effective until further notice is an extension of the closed period for salmon net fishing from 6 p.m. Wednesday to 6 p.m. Sunday in each week.

The closure covers all waters of the west coast of Vancouver Island between Beechey Head and Cape Scott including salmon purse seine areas 20-27 inclusive.

The closure was extended, the department says, "for the purpose of providing extra protection to the current salmon runs in the interests of conservation."

BOY ROBBED OF $11

HOPE IMPROVED TRANSPORTATION WILL EASE ACUTE HOUSING SHORTAGE IN TOKYO

TOKYO.—A research student doing a study of population movements said he recently conducted a survey of dogs passing over three bridges spanning the Tama River between Tokyo and Yokohama.

He said the tails of the dogs all were pointing south—that is they were headed for Tokyo.

So are the coattails of most of the humans, apparently, for the city of Tokyo is growing at a rate of more than 10,000 people a month. It has created here one of the worst housing shortages of any major city in the world.

Tokyo had 1,377,000 houses for its population of 7,300,000 persons in 1941. During the great fire raids by the United States B-29's in World War II, an estimated total of 760,000 of these were burned down.

Since the war only 720,000 new houses have been built—only 6,000 last year—while the population has increased by almost 1,000,000 people. On Aug. 1, 8,256,839 were trying to live in Tokyo.

Shortage a Major Problem

Despite the ability of the Japanese to live fairly comfortably in less space than a Western family, because they sleep on padded quilts on the floor instead of in beds, lack of housing is one of the city's major problems.

One reason for the crowding is the lack of vertical, or apartment house construction. Most of the houses in Tokyo are one-story buildings, jammed together like New Yorkers in a subway rush hour.

During the last year, official and semi-official housing authorities have been turning more and more of their efforts toward the erection of multi-family buildings.

Overcrowding of Japanese families has caused social and psychological upheavals that have many persons worried.

With extension and improvements of transportation services to outlying areas, it is hoped some of the midtown congestion can be eased. Many city planners believe that multi-family houses are the better answer, providing more housing on the same area of land and giving more light, air and comfort to the occupants than do one-family, one-story houses.

Koreans in Japan Compared to Negro Situation

TOKYO.—The segregation-integration view of Japanese newsmen—which according to them are also the views of the general public—can best be expressed by quoting Gyo Hani, also of Japan Times and Johnnie K. Hayasaka, recently a reporter for Mainichi largest newspaper in Japan, circulation 6,000,000).

"I think all races should go to school together, in all countries, as they do here," Mr. Hani said. "However, in regions such as your south, the people should be given time to get used to the idea—and not forced to integrate by guns and tanks."

He said Japan, until recently, also had an integration problem—involving Koreans. This occurred during and just after the Korean War when thousands of Koreans immigrated to Japan.

Hayasaka said most Japanese discriminated against the Koreans much as some American Whites do against Negroes.

"Japanese said the Koreans were slovenly ignorant and mostly crime-prone," he said, "but now we realize that these faults, existing true enough to a certain degree were only the result of poor education."

He said there were many incidents of mistreatment to Koreans that have parallels in the American south.

"But our best universities and schools were opened to them and now almost all Koreans occupy a respected place in the community," he said, "and there are very few incidents of discrimination any more."

Gyo Hani said the Japanese press admired the U.S. Supreme Court's courage in making the segregation ruling and has generally supported it in editorials.

CANADIAN-BORN REV. JITSUO MORIKAWA, 42, ASSUMES MAJOR POSITION AMONG U.S. BAPTISTS

NEW YORK.—A minister who made news when he became associate minister of Chicago's second oldest Protestant church with an all-white congregation in 1944 is coming to New York early in November to assume a major position with the American Baptist Home Mission Societies.

The Rev. Dr. Jitsuo Morikawa made news because he was a Canadian of Japanese descent, came from a Buddhist family, was possibly the first of his racial origin to become minister of an all-white church, and because the congregation voted unanimously to approve his appointment on the Sunday after news of the Bataan Death March hit the American public. At such a time, the offer of such a post and the acceptance took mutual courage.

The 42-year-old minister is handsome, built like an athlete, and has a reputation as an eloquent speaker. He was the only speaker to receive a standing ovation at the Buffalo convention of the American Baptist Convention in 1951.

In addition, he is making an outstanding contribution to Christian race relations. His congregation at the First Baptist Church in Chicago practices what he preached from January 1944 until his resignation Sept. 23. Its current membership is made up of whites, Nisei and Negroes.

One Nisei has been quoted as saying: "I recently met some of his white parishioners and was struck by the fact that they are completely unselfconscious about it (racial brotherhood) all."

Dr. Morikawa himself had said, "I consider it a heresy for any Christian to condone racial discrimination and segregation."

Born into a Buddhist home in Hammond, British Columbia (just west of Haney), on May 1, 1914, Dr. Morikawa became a Baptist at the age of 16. Through his persuasiveness he converted his neighbours, his parents and his brothers. When his minister asked him why he didn't devote his whole time to winning more for Christ he decided to do so.

As a result of his training he holds degrees from the Bible Institute and University of California, both in Los Angeles; Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville; and his D.D. from Blackburn College, Carlinsville, Ill.

He is married to the former Hazel Takii of San Pedro, Calif., and they have two sons, Andrew 12 and Dennis 10. His parents reside in New Toronto, Ont.

Glenn Ford's Turn To Rave About Japan

HOLLYWOOD.—Glenn Ford is the latest movie star to return from the Orient full of raves for Japan.

He also is enthusiastic about the picture he made there, "Teahouse of the August Moon," and about the fellow who starred in the movie with him—Marlon Brando.

"Marlon went crazy about Japan, and did a wonderful job of public relations, and not just for the picture. I wonder how many people realize the political and diplomatic impact of movie personalities visiting foreign countries. It's tremendous."

He then switched the subject to Japan, which has become one of his favorite countries. Proof of this is the fact that he hopes to take his family there at the first opportunity.

"You become a better person for having gone there," he said. "The people have an inner beauty, a certain pride, kindness, patience, great honesty, humbleness and honor. I think going to Japan aided us—this is a picture we could never have made out on the back lot in Hollywood. It's a different world and it shakes you a bit."

Religion, Tea Ceremony Influence Pottery

By CECILIA SMITH
in the Vancouver Sun

VANCOUVER.— Hand-crafted pottery with beautiful simple lines has an affinity with today's homes and gardens.

The simplicity of contemporary architecture, with the interrelation of house and garden, have promoted a growing appreciation of Japanese folk craft on this continent, in the opinion of artist-potter Tommy Kakinuma.

Mr. Kakinuma has succeeded Rex Mason as head of the Ceramics Department at the University of B.C.

This teacher's advice to pottery students is not to be content with making pots only. He hopes many will set creative and individual ceramic sculpture as their objective.

Pottery students are working with higher fired earthenware because the UBC pottery hut lacks a kiln for firing stoneware and porcelain, Mr. Kakinuma regretfully points out.

They will also study Raku which had a great influence on the Japanese tea ceremony. Raku was valued by the famous Japanese potter Kenzan for its artistic potentialities and the well-known contemporary potter Hamada favors it also.

Religion and the tea ceremony have both influenced Japanese hand-crafted pottery, Mr. Kakinuma explains.

ブックにして發行すると、ほとんどベスト・セラーになるというほど、いま日本讀書界の賣れっ子である杉靖三郎博士は、ト市滞在中[illegible]部主催で[illegible]堂で講演會を催したが、來聴者約百餘名、同博士は人間の身体と心に關する有益な話を二時間半にわたり熱辯した。なお杉博士は依頼に應じ、廿五日夜佛教會階下で婦人會、生長の家、市協一世部共催の座談會にのぞみ、多數の參加者に對して健康に關し更に具体的な興味ある話を行った。

「砂川の警官」が自殺!!

【東京時事通信】砂川の強制測量に出動した警視廳の豫備隊員が流血事件になやみ「砂川問題の善悪がわからなくなった」との遺書を殘し、鎌倉の旅館で服毒自殺した。井戸清巡査(二四)がその人である。同巡査は砂川の強制測量のさい出動、全治約十日間の傷を負い勤務を休んでいたが、先週末鎌倉の旅館に宿泊、服毒自殺したもので、遺書五通のうち同巡査が所屬している第二中隊長にあてたものには、次の如く書いてあった。

將來に對する不安からこのようになりました。何事も將來がなくては生きて行くことができないものとしみじみ感じました。砂川問題にしてみても私にとってはどちらが善いのか惡いのか批判する考えは少しもありませんが、砂川問題を契機として私の人生觀が大きく變ったことは事實です。中隊長さんはお困りのことと存じますが、深くおわび申上げます。同室のものを責めないで下さい。

ト市と杉博士

△生理學者として知名の杉博士は專門的つながりがあるとはいえ、ここに住んでいてさっぱり知らないでいることを我々に教えてくれた。インスリンを發見したバンチング博士と協力者のベスト博士のことは周知だが、「ハンス・シェリエー」というドクターの研究について知っている人は少いだろう。

△このドクターは天才だと杉博士はいう。誰よりも逸早く、人間の身体と精神は一体のものであって、この二つの調和が欠けたり、亂れたりすると病氣になる、という新學説を發表した人だ。彼の主張に杉博士は全く共鳴したそのことである。

△バンチング博士の一大發見をしたというニュースを醫大生になったばかりのとき知って、トロントへいつか行ってみたいものだと念じた杉博士は、キューバからわざわざ北上して來市したのである。長年の願いが叶ったわけ。カナダに來てはじめて日系人の立退、再定住の歴史を知ったともいい、そして歸國すれば、まるで知られていないカナダと日系人のことを大いに書いてみたいといっている。

△「各國の長生き競わし」をまとめている杉博士がいう長壽の秘訣の一つは、盆栽作りと菊作りか。中年以後の者には競爭を要するゲームなどは健康によくないと注意している。

生きてる嬉しさ

醫學博士杉靖二郎氏の專門は生理學である。むずかしいことはもちろん私にはわからないが、それは生命を對象とする學問であろうし、人間の命の、生の、如何によく生きるかの問題にまで入って行く學問であるように承知する。

はずかしい話だが、私は今まで杉博士のことを殆んど知らなかったのであるが、こんど博士がキューバ國ハバナで開かれた世界醫師會總會へ日本醫師會代表として出席された途上と歸途に(博士はこれからヨーロッパ、中東諸國を廻って來年三月に日本に歸られる筈)カナダにも立寄られたので博士の奥さんの親友であるカズローの鮎ヶ谷夫人の好意で博士の本を貸していただき、今週博士がトロントに着かれてから講演會や座談會でお話をうかがっているうちに、この活き活きとした愉快な生理學者の人となりが可なりわかって來たようで、大好きになり、お會い出來た機會を大變有りがたくおもっているのである。また、今土曜日一日を博士とすごすことが出來るので、深山よいことをきける樂しみがのこっている。

杉博士は知識の寶庫みたいような方で、話題は文學通り豐富である上に、話し上手で、物すごいほどの語り手であるから、話は寸隙もなく盡きるところを知らない有様であるが、ホテルで雜談しているうちに、われわれ日系カナダ人が、特に第二世が、戰爭を契機として開放されて新天地にのびている有様にふれ、のび上る生命の力をはばみ得るものはないのだ、と語られたあたり、今更のように私たちの前途の光明を見直したことであった。講演會でも人間のからだ、そして頭腦のすばらしい働きを說いてもらって、からだと頭を大切に、よく使い、訓練して行かなければならぬことを教えてもらったのも、わが身の貴さと、生きていることの有難さを再び見直させられたことであった。

杉博士は、見るもの聞くもの、すべてに嬉しさを覺えられるようであるが、私もすっかり嬉しくなった。

露木海藏

△「かかる暴擧が法治國家に許されてよいのか」、この言葉は最近に起った砂川町事件について、政府並びに警察當局に對する一般の輿論と言論である。米軍基地擴張に必要なる農地接收に反對する「砂川町問題」は昨年來の問題で、私も當時これにふれたことがある。

△日本は對ソ交渉では「祖先傳來の土地を守る」と叫んで南千島問題に强論をすすめているが、砂川町では原爆基地になる「祖先傳來の農地を死守する」と叫んで政府の强制接收に反對する。

△政府の强制測量に無抵抗の抵抗をすべく、砂川町では一週間に亘ってニラミ合っていたが、遂に流血の慘事と[illegible]。負傷者[illegible]間で一千名を出し、占領軍でさえも敗戰國民にやらなかった暴擧(諸官)を警察隊はやったと言う。

△衝突現狀のニュースや錄音では鐵カブト、警棒の警官が、スクラムを組む町民や應援者におどり込んで髮の毛をひっ張り、ベルトの中に棒を差しこんでしめあげる。又は鐵カブトを相手の頭にぶっつけてミゲンを割る。このやり方は相當に研究した戰鬪方法と思える。

△日ソ國交が回復するとソ連の宣傳が日本に强くなって秩序保持を强力にする必要があると保守派の政治家は言うが、政府側はそれに備えて「暴徒的」訓練をしている譯ではあるまい。

△「寫眞をとったら許さんぞ」とニュース・カメラも言論の自由も暴力にただかれたとあっては、とんだ「愛される警官」の行動だと政府はこの二ヵ月ほど暴力排除のかけ聲で、町のグレン隊や暴力團を檢擧していたが、空前の慘事を警官の組織の下に決行したとあっては國民感情はどうなるのか?

反ソデモ ハンガリ首都で大騒ぎ
ソ連軍隊や戰車が出動してやっと鎮壓!!

【ブダペスト發】ポーランドに於ける政變にシゲキされたハンガリーの首都ブダペスト（人口約百万）では、約二十五万の群衆が火曜夜から政廳をとり囲み、一九五五年にパージ（追放）されたイムレ・ナジイを首相にせよと叫びあげて反ソ連デモをやつた。これに對しソ連側ではハンガリー共産黨をヘルプするため軍隊、戰車および戰闘機を出動させてデモ鎮壓にのり出したが、首都ブダペスト市街はさながら市街戰のようで、戰車やソ連兵に追われて四散する市民、それに抵抗するデモ、一説には死者三百五十名を出したといわれる。この騒ぎをおさめるため、ハンガリー共産政府はデモの要求をいれてナジイを首相に祭りあげて事局拾收をはかつたが、今度はデモが「ソ連軍隊をハンガリーから追い出せ」と承知せず「ロッスキー・ゴー・ホーム」とデモは勢力を失わず、スターリンの銅像をたたきこわそうとしたりして騒ぎはおさまらず、遂に廿五日夜になつてやつとナジイ新首相のアピールで反ソ・デモはおさまつた。

ソ連が秋波送る

【ワルソー發】ポーランドがソ連のキズナから脱れて獨立を求める政變にシゲキされてハンガリーでも騒ぎ出したことに同情した數千人の青年はワルソー市街を廿四日夜デモると共に「ソ連にあやつられている共産黨首脳部はソ連へ歸れ」とイキまいたが、治安隊のため大事にならぬうちに解散された。一方、ソ連側ではポーランド政變についてクルシチェフ第一書記がポーランドをオドかしたゼスチュアを謝罪し、ともかく仲よくやつて行こうと仲直りを持ち出しており、新首相ゴムルカほか二名の新リーダーらは近くモスクワを訪れることになるものといわれている。

歐洲移民の大半 専門や技術者

【オタワ發】今年一月から八月末までの八ヶ月間におけるカナダへの移民數は九万八千七百六十一名、うち四万千九百九十七名は未成年者であるから成年者は五万七千二百四名。このうち半數以上の三十二万四百九十七名が熟練又は半熟練者として手に職を持つていると移民省で今週發表した。

共産ケン諸國との復交
事態をみて考慮=重光外相談

【東京時事通信】重光外相は今週、閣議後記者團と會見、日ソ復交にともなう國連加盟、共産けん諸國との復交問題などにつき、次のように語つた。

一、日ソ共同宣言の批准は早急にやる必要がある。日本の國連加盟に關して各國に用意してもらうためにも早く行いたい。

一、國連加盟については一部に外交との抱合せのため困難ではないかとの見方があるが、私はそうは思わない。國連加盟はとにかく達成されるだろう。その場合國連總會には私自身乗り込むつもりだ。

一、中共との復交問題の政治的解決は容易でない。その他の共産けん諸國との復交は日ソ復交後に考慮したい。ポーランドの政變が終つて事態の見定めがつけば日ソ復交問題も解決される順序となろう。

日本センイ品制限せよ
=ハウ通産相が東京で語る=

既報の通り、ハウ通商兼國防生産相はシャープ通商次官を同伴、二十三日羽田着のシービー機で着日したが記者團會談においてカナダにおける日本センイ品について、次の如く語った。

カナダ國内に日本製センイ品がハンランしてどうにもならないという事態にはいたつていないが、カナダ政府としては日本がセンイ品に對して自發的制限の措置をとることが好ましいと思う。もし事態が悪化すれば制限する途をカナダは講じねばならなくなろう。

【東京時事通信】日本政府與黨は今週連絡會議を開き、臨時國會は十一月十二日に召集することを決めた。なお國會終了直後黨大會を開くことになつている。臨時國會は大体一ヵ月間の豫定である。

財界肅正へ
河野農相工作か

【東京時事通信】消息筋によると、河野農相は歸國後、鳩山居据り工作を行い、それが成功すれば次は財界の反河野派の一掃に着手する肚といわれる。財界がさきに行つた「鳩山首相引退要望」の申入れ事件は一應双方の了解がついたことになつているが、消息筋によると、あの申入れは日ソ交渉再開直前にこれを阻止する意圖で吉田派につながる財界人を中心に行われただけに、河野農相はいまだに釋然としていないといわれ、その後日ソ交渉は河野農相の思策通り妥結し、鳩山居据り工作に成功すれば財界申入れの主旨はことごとく無視されたことになり、河野氏の[illegible]勢に乗じて財界[illegible]河野勢力の一掃に乗り出すことは必至だとみている。

日本ミカン 二百八万クレツ

遠藤領事夫妻は二十六日午前九時、市民協會、新聞社及び日本商社代表らの出迎えをうけてマルトン空港に到着した。

中南米へ初移民
日本移民調査官が現地へ

【東京時事通信】「新しき土」を求めて政府はかねて中南米のグアテマラ、ベネズラエ兩國の日本人移住について交渉していたが、このほど兩國政府の同意を得たので、外務省移住局齋木事務官、農林省振興局能勢技官を二十七日空路派遣、入植候補地を現地調査することになつた。兩國は日本人移民にとつて處女地なので政府のよせる期待も大きく、調査官の調査結果に基き移民計畫をたてるが、移住は明年度から開始する。

ビーシー水揚げ

ビーシー州漁者の九月中における水揚げ總額は四百二十九万九千弗で昨年九月より十五万三千弗の減少。サモン水揚げ額は三百十万四千弗で昨年より約三十パーセント減少で、秋季における漁者の儲け高は昨年より少くなつている。

ト市街の落葉だけは 厄介千万だが金儲け

△並木の街として自負しているトロント市民は、春の新緑を楽しみ、夏の深緑に涼をとつて並木をありがたがる。しかし九月末から十月末にかけて、これらの並木は一つ残らず落葉、秋の景色をそえるが、市民の間には落葉について賛否兩論が出ている。

△――落葉がこうたくさん乱れ散つては交通上危険だし、そして雨でも降ればまるでアイスのようにすべり、老年者の歩行は大變になる。落葉は厄介千万なものだ。子供たちは落葉の山のなかで遊ぶことを好むが、ドライヴァーは子供を知らずに走らすという危険もあるというのが反對論。

△――落葉というのは自然の與わる恵みの一つで、市街に美を加えるものだとの自然讃美論者もあり、落葉だけがトロント・ストリート・クリーニング局に金儲けさせる唯一のものだというのがブラッドレー局長さん。

△なにしろ、市内五百八十一マイルにおよぶ街路の落葉は、毎秋トラック八百臺にいつぱいになるほど落ちて來るとのことで、一度に百台と六百人が集めてもなかなかで、早く整理せよと文句ばかりうけているが、この落葉を集めて腐らす工場（同局所有）に送り、これを肥料として各家庭やガーデナーに販賣している。

米國の動き活發

【東京發】在米大使館から政府への報告によると米國内では綿製品以外の日本品の輸入制限の動きが活發化しており、政府は日本の中小企業にとつて重大問題だと憂慮している。報告によればこ[illegible]毛織物[illegible]毛セーター、毛製手袋、本ネヂからクリスマス用電球などの雜貨類にまで及んでおり、當局では大統領選挙の年とはいえ戰後初めての動きだと重視している。當局筋によれば米業界でも「米政府を介して日本業界に輸出調整をさせよう」としており、毛織物は米國業界も動いて國別割當制で日本品の輸入を制限しようとしている。

the M-space

— by marge —

Let me see, what did we do this past week? With [illegible] rushing ever nearer, it's getting mighty hard [illegible] than it usually is. . . .

Last Friday, I and some 79 other odd ones, [illegible] besides myself (it all comes out the same no matter which way [you] put it), anyways, about 80 of us dug through a [illegible]-course Japanese dinner at the House of Fujimatsu. [illegible] There were shrimps (steamed or boiled, [illegible]) sashimi, salad greens, tempura-d shrimps, [illegible] chicken, clear soup, rice, omanju, chicken [illegible] bass all crusty and Japanesey-looking, of which [illegible] partook because it looked so much like a decoration, [illegible] some grape juice for purposes of toasting the [illegible] back on the subject of food again! Must put a stop to this.

After the banquet we waddled over to Columbus [Hall] for the 10th Anniversary Dance (of the resettlement of Japanese Canadians in Toronto) to trip the heavy fantastic.

Saturday we saw The Optimist, Mavor Moore's musical version of Candide, the satire on optimism by the old philosopher Voltaire. The part of Candide was played by Robert Goulet, the latest [idol] of young female play-goers, and the part of Dr. Voltaire by Drew Thompson, who was a pleasant and impressive surprise.

Candide is a simple and honest lad, pupil of the learned Pangloss, professor of metaphysicotheologicocosmonigology, an incurable optimist. They go through all sorts of misfortune such as tornadoes, earthquakes, the Inquisition, prison, etc. but Pangloss manages to find some good in everything. Voltaire wrote his famous satire in three days in 1751, after being angered by some statements of "profound theodicy" by the return-to-nature philosopher, Rousseau.

The New Play Society, which produced The Optimist, seems to characterize itself with refreshingly uncluttered and colorful stage settings and costumes. In both The Spring Thaw earlier this year and this play, the stage settings left a lasting impression on my impressionable little gray matter. Personally, I preferred The Optimist to Spring Thaw, but my friend differs.

Sunday was a lovely Indian summer day, so High Park was driven through with leaves gently falling so romantically into the byways and highways.

Monday found me back at the museum where the Japanese Garden club was entertaining all the local ladies of the press. There I saw my mother dressed in traditional Japanese kimono for the first time. A demonstration of how one gets into a Japanese kimono was going on with Mrs. J. Kagetsu narrating while Mrs. F. Hayashi dressed Mrs. K. Takahashi. It was interesting and humorous to watch as Mrs. H. tugged and pulled and bound the tight-looking raiment onto the model. Mrs. K. did a very good job of explaining all the details of pattern and dress, and kept up a running commentary during the long time it took to get the kimono on. Then tea and food were served again.

Tuesday, invited for dinner at a girlfriend's place, I was once again subjected to the dominance of the TV set, since girlfriend's father was performing for CBC's "ta-bu-roi-du", in a special show publicizing the Isho collection at the museum. The TV set sits on the kitchen table, inescapable, while the family et al huddles around with eyes glued on whatever TV sees fit to produce, little conscious of the delicious corn, steak, potatoes, corn, beets, salad or cora passing through the ivory portals below. It's really amazing, the power that TV seems to hold over everyone. I guess I just don't dig it.

Well, I'd better stop typing and rush this copy down to Nick right away. The deadline is looming ever nearer, nearer, nearer. . . Aaaargh!

CHATHAM SLANTS

By JACK NISHIZAKI

CHATHAM — Regardless of whether this reaches you in time or not, it's a [illegible] that today, Oct. 27, at the YMCA, the Teensters are putting on a hard-times Sadie Hawkins dance, meaning the gal is the boss as far as expenses are concerned. Guys, please don't take too much advantage after the dance at the local snack bar — refreshments will be plentiful at the dance. So you, Daisy-Mae, make sure he (I mean your date) gets enough of it, or are you going all out to make it worthwhile? Don't say I didn't warn you. Gosh, he's worth it, you say — mind your own business? Any way you take it, have a good time.

Have you bowlers finally got your form? I was surprised to [see] so many good scores on Friday — at least one big game each. What happened to the other two — no comment? Keep trying. It's a sign that know-how and confidence will count. While on the subject of bowling, I will mention here George Nishizaki, who is bowling for Maple City league, bowled a nice single of 417, not bad for one night. Besides the case of cokes and maybe a pot on the side, I might say a very profitable night indeed.

Last Monday was Chatham Minor Baseball award night, with presentations for teams and individuals. Among them we saw Don Wakabayashi receive a most valuable award in the Midget League, in which he played first base when he's not a starting pitcher. He was brought up to Junior when the Midgets were eliminated, to participate in the Junior playdowns. He is the brother of Melvin, who played for the Bantam A All-Stars which captured the Ontario Championship. Unfortunately, their jackets weren't quite ready for presentation and will be put aside to a later date. To all boys who took part in minor league baseball, winners or losers, congratulations until next year. Now you say, bring on the hockey gear.

Our congratulations to Bobby Tsukayama, who received an award for "Know Your Canada" on Victoria School award night; also to Kazuko Shimizu for "Mathematics", who received the Dr. Keeyi medal, one of the most outstanding awards to be given or received.

Finally in the local news, I might add another congratulation to George Baba, well-known local citizen. Aside from his present business, he recently bought a well-established cleaning business, namely, the Chatham Cleaners, to serve our community.

FAMOUS LAST WORDS....

TOKYO. — The Brooklyn Dodgers finally won one of their 20 exhibition games against Japanese teams early this week by defeating Tokyo's central league all stars 7-1. Japan won the first two games 5-1, 6-1.

Earlier, it was reported that "Japanese ball fans know that it is impossible for Japanese teams to defeat the Dodgers but they are going to jampack the stadia nevertheless to see how really good the Brooklyn team is."

HARLEM GLOBETROTTERS TO TOUR JAPAN

HONOLULU:—The world famed Harlem Globetrotters basketball team has scheduled a series of 15 games in Japan during November. The games will be played in Tokyo, Yokohama, Nagoya and Osaka.

The Globetrotters have scheduled some 75 games during November through January on a tour which will take them through Canada, Alaska, Japan, the Far East, Australia, New Zealand and Hawaii.

DOUBLE S LOSES OPENER TO RIVER SNACK BAR; WILL PLAY ZADUK & WILLIAMS SUNDAY

Double S Tile lost 4-2 in their debut last Sunday into the 1956 season of the East Toronto Hockey League. After yielding a 2-0 lead to the Nisei team in the first period, River Snack Bar bounced right back with four goals in the second half.

Nisei had only four shots on goal in the second period, as compared to 12 in the opener.

Tomorrow's schedule pits Double S against Zaduk and Williams in the third game at 3:20 at East York Arena. The teams have five games in which to determine their rosters for the season, and coach Mas Nakao will be trying out all possible combinations.

Dave Sunohara and Lou Luchetta were the goal-getters in the opener, while captain Roy Kobayashi had an assist. George Anzai leads the club's strong rushing defense. Luchetta may prove the club's most improved player.

Double S was somewhat hampered by the lateness of the Sunday ball season, as both Roy Tanaka and Kobayashi arrived late. Sporting new uniforms, the Flyers should settle down soon to become a stronger unit than last year's squad, which finished fifth, out of the playoffs.

Ralph Ruffo, who played one game last year before being declared ineligible, is expected to carry the goalkeeping load. In addition to Anzai, Luchetta, Hank Condrit and Satch Fujimoto, Double S has picked up Ian MacPherson, second baseman for Honest Ed's, who has had junior B experience, for the blue line guard.

The top three forward lines are Kobayashi-Sho Mori-Roy Tanaka, Yuki Kameoka-Major Fukumoto with newcomer Jack Banks, and Dave Sunohara-Mo Molnar-Red McIlwaine. Dave's kid brother, Phil Sunohara, is another rookie. Jackie Tanaka aids Nakao in coaching duties.

Interchurch Upset by Boulevard Club, 21-11

Champs of the league last year, Interchurch absorbed a surprise upset defeat, 21-11, at the hands of a strong Boulevard Club squad this week. The losers showed a bit of rustiness in their joints due to the earliness of the season.

Kay Ogaki, Chiyo Takeda, Roy Shin and Frank Matsui toiled hard for Interchurch. Next game is coming Wednesday.

First tourney of the year will be Boulevard Club's first annual Open Doubles, slated Nov. 13-18. Nisei entries are expected in all three events (men's, ladies' and mixed).

Parents Urged to Send Kids

The senior Tuesday night group at Metro gym is enjoying one of its best starts in many seasons, for which much credit is due organizers like Roy Shin and other members of the senior club who are giving special attention to coaching juniors at All Nations on Friday night.

A dozen newcomers are out so far, and more are welcome. Parents are urged to encourage their children to take part in the winter indoor sport.

Senior club members include about a dozen players who have graduated from the junior group in the past few years.
